

SEASON WRAP UP

The 2007 AVP season is officially over. We finished the year ranked 7th overall. It was highlighted by several top 10 finishes, five 5th place finishes, 3 semi-finals appearances, and my first ever Finals appearance in Chicago! Check out the pics here!

The off season has many fun things in store for me! Keep up-to-date by checking my site often.

Thank you so much for your continuing support and encouragement!

Scholar and Athlete Award at Saint Monica's School

October 20th, I was presented with an award acknowledging excellence in education and sport. Saint Monica's School in Santa Monica, CA hosted a junior high volleyball tournament featuring a clinic by Randy Stoklos and Sinjin Smith. I was presented with the award and then assisted the two legends with the clinic.

Hong Kong Beach Festival

I thought it was the off season, but I just could not resist! I will be playing in an FIVB Satellite Event in Hong Kong from November 5th through the 12th. Because my partner, Brooke Hanson, had knee surgery, I will be playing this event with Chrissy Zartman. But don't worry, Brooke is recovering extremely fast and will be better than ever by next year.

AVP Hot Winter Nights

The Hot Winter Nights Tour is coming to a city near you. This January and February, it may be freezing outside, but we are cranking up the heat and bringing the beach indoors! The format for these events will be "King of the Beach", which means only 4 men and 4 women will be at each event. Keep checking www.angieakers.com to find out which events I will be playing at. Check out the schedule.
